MOTOR BOATS & CLASS R/T TRAILERS

All motor boats are required to be registered. Motor boats with at least 3hp/70lb thrust motors have a registration fee. All motor boats with under 3hp/70lb thrust and Government boats have no registration fee. If you change the configuration of your boat from a 3hp/70lb thrust+ to under 3hp/70lb thrust status, submit the registration, a letter of explanation, and a completed DMV form R-14 to DMV.
Letters of explanation must include the make and hp of the boat's motor. DMV only titles and registers motorized boats.

Motor boat and Class R or T trailer registrations run from April 1 - March 31 every three years. As shown below, 2011, being year one of the three year registration cycle, has a three year price, whereas 2013, being the last year of the registration cycle, has a one year price. See the chart below for pricing details.
